

Programme

	Day 1 Wed 16.10.	Day 2 Thur 17.10.	Day 3 Fr 18.10.	Day 4 Sa 19.10.	Day 5 Su 20.10.
9.00 - 10.00h	New ethical challenges in data-rich biomedical research	Legal challenges of international Big Data-Reseach		The social and international dimension of data-rich medical research	Consenting to data-rich medical research
	Input-Speaker Alena Buyx, Munich	Input-Speaker Sebastian v. Kielmansegg, Kiel		Input-Speaker David Townend, Maastricht University	Input-Speaker Martin Langanke, Bochum
10.00 - 11.15h	Monika Kraus Challenges of patient consent documents within the German Centre of Cardiovascular Research e.V. (DZHK)	Markus Spitz Legal perspective on risks and opportunities of systematic secondary use of clinical data in different learning and research contexts	Ethical challenges of AI in data-rich medical research	Leonie Felicia Schrader Novel legal challenges in the international context of data use in research	Anja Köngeter/ Martin Jungkunz From Categorization to Evaluation of Secondary Data Use: Learning and Research Uses of Clinical Data
			Input-Speaker Barbara Prainsack, Vienna
11.15 – 11.45 h	Coffee break	Coffee break	Coffee break	Coffee break	Coffee break
11.45 – 13.00 h	Input-Speaker Gesine Richter, Munich/Kiel Can public involvement pave the way to knowledgeability justifying a non-consent policy under the GDPR?	Andrea Martani Secondary use of data for research purposes: should there be different consent-requirements for genetic and non-genetic health data?	Daniel Tigard Big Data and the Threat to Moral Responsibility in Healthcare”	Elena Pavlenko What is the impact of the GDPR on data sharing in research? A perspective from Cognitive Neuroimaging	Patrik Hummel Data Sovereignty— Harnessing the Potentials of Data-Driven Research Without Compromising the Rights of Data Subjects
13.00 – 14.00 h	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch		Lunch
14.00 – 15.15 h	Bettina Schmietow Ethical perspectives on dynamic forms of consent and stakeholder involvement in data-intense biomedical research	Input-Speaker Gerrit Hohendorf, Munich Datenbankgestützte historische Forschung zu den nationalsozialistischen „Euthanasie“-Verbrechen, die Frage der Namensnennung der Opfer und Belange der Angehörigen	Anne Wierling/ Wulf Loh Informed Consent and Social Robotics in Elder Care	Optional: cultural event	Final discussion
15.15 – 15.45 h	Coffee break	Coffee break

15.45 – 17.00 h	Sybille Roschka The consent process and its ethical challenges in the light of the General Data Protection Regulation	Wiebke Lesch Data Donation in Medical Research from the Perspective of Different Stakeholders	16.00 h Stadtführung		End of the Winter school
18.00 h	Scientific site visit	Public scientific talk Michael Krawczak, Kiel Secondary Data Use for Research: Consent or Data Donation?
19.30 h		Meet, eat and talk with the experts at the Institute			